

November 15, 2010

NJBMDA Bids Farewell to Lillian Coleman

Lillian Coleman, 84, the mother of Keith and Kip Coleman of Hamilton Building Supply, passed away peacefully November 7 at her home in Florida.

Born in Caribou, ME, Mrs. Coleman was a longtime resident of West Windsor and spent her winters in Florida. Mrs. Coleman was an avid bowler and Phillies fan, but especially enjoyed playing golf. During her 30-plus years playing, she had five holes-in-one.

She is survived by her husband of 65 years, Jess C. Coleman Jr.; four sons and daughters-in-law, Kip and Donna Coleman of Lambertville, Ken Coleman of Port St. Lucie, FL, Kim and Karen Coleman of Princeton, and Keith and Susan Coleman of Solebury, PA; her brother, William Reimer of Hamilton; her sisters, Kaye Benedict and Louise Smith, both of Florida, and Shirley Dorman of Browns Mills; 11 grandchildren; six great-grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Coleman, Deborah Hospital, P.O. Box 3005, Hamilton, NJ 08619, or the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, 26 Broadway, New York, NY 10004

Registration Opens for Nov. 17 Annual Meeting

Got the email or fax about the annual meeting? It is right around the corner.

This year's unique format will again combine the Management Roundtable and Annual Meeting. The merging of the meetings was designed to control costs and respect the limited time of our members. Additionally, in order to control costs to members, the meeting will feature a reception only (no dinner).

Please join us starting at 3 pm to hear expert Marc Engelsman present "Findability Marketing - High Impact Programs to Drive New Business." Learn how businesses are integrating search engine optimization (SEO), paid search and social media marketing to generate sales.

At 4 pm, we will host Jeff Otteau, founder and president of the Otteau Valuation Group, who will present a comprehensive overview of the structural forces shaping the New Jersey housing market.

Reserve your seat by contacting the association office – 908-359-1184. Price per person (member and member guest(s) accompanied by a member) is $30. Non-member price is $70.

On the Lighter Side

A company in China is selling a President Obama blow-up doll. Don't get too excited. It turns out most of its positions are very unpopular."

– Jimmy Fallon